

SIRACUSA - The President of the Parliamentary Commission of Inquiry on Medical Malpractice

, Leoluca
Orlando

ca
and

wrote
to commissioner
for healthcare
of Sicily

Massimo
Russo

asking
a report
containing
any useful
element
of knowledge
about
the death
a young, 21
years old

on
January 25

According to the report received by the Commission, the patient was hospitalized for about two years and a half in the department of psychiatry at the hospital in Syracuse because

due to
crisis
which he was subject

no therapeutic
community
received him

Following
a
court order, he was finally detected
in
structure
prepared

take care of him.
The
young man
arrived
on January 24
but
following afternoon

after a crisis
, families
were advised that he
was brought to the hospital

When they arrived in the community, would find their beloved in worrying conditions, "thrown t o the ground and tied with
cable".

The
nurse
present

after trying unsuccessfully
to
calm them

noting
the absence
blood
pressure

was decided
to
call 118

without specifying
, however,
that it was a cardiac arrest

so
ambulance
came without resuscitation
tools and
defibrillation

When
finally
an ambulance

properly
equipped
patient
was already
died
